BRINGING LIFE COACHING TO KIDS

ONE STORY AT A TIME

Renaye Thornborrow is leading a worldwide movement to bring life coaching to kids. Since 2013, her company has certified hundreds of coaches in over 30 countries, helping them create a business they love as a life coach for kids while empowering children around the world.

For Renaye, motherhood was the catalyst for turning her lifelong passion for personal development into a comprehensive and effective story-based coaching curriculum to bring life coaching to kids.

Life coaching is a game changer for children as they learn how to build confidence, resilience, and mindset skills for life; and it's a game changer for coaches as they increase their impact and income while doing their work in the world serving kids.
